Obituary

Missionary Delores Bell-Harris was born on February 12, 1946 in Memphis, Tennessee to Walter Bell Sr. and Delia Ann (Wilson) Bell. She was the second eldest child of 8 children.

In October of 1956 the family moved to San Francisco, California. Delores attended McKinley Elementary School in the Fillmore district. After suffering a great Earthquake in San Francisco the family moved to 114 Middle Point Road in Hunters Point. Delores attended Sir Francis Drake Elementary and Pelton Jr High where she was the valedictorian of her class. She attended Mission High School and later on received her G.E.D. at San Francisco City College.

As a young lady at the age of 8, Missionary Delores Harris and her brother Pastor Le'Von Bell attended a Baptist church where they would sing on the radio for Missionary Nancy Graham. Delores loved to sing. As young children Delores Harris and Le'Von Bell found themselves always together doing community service finding wounded animals and dead animals and they would hold funeral services for the animals. Le'Von her brother would officiate the service and Delores was the faithful member mourning for the animals. As the eldest daughter of 8 children sometimes Delores was in charge of running the house and making sure the other children were safe and fed. During these times Delores' mother (Mo. Bell) encouraged her to cook for her brothers and sisters and that was the beginning of her learning how to become an awesome cook.

In 1961 Delores met and married Mr. James A. Richards Sr. In this union she had two beautiful children, Demetrice (Richards) Robinson and James A. Richards, Jr.

In 1975 she met Pastor Arelious Walker, from the True Hope Church C.O.G.I.C. where she was introduced to receiving Jesus Christ as her Personal Savior and Lord. When Delores received the Lord as her Savior she then introduced her other siblings and Mother to the Lord and the Bell Family lives were changed.

It was then that she began to work for the lord and she never stopped. After a short time it was then that God spoke to Delores Harris to step out and receive her calling to the Mission field to Evangelize. She continued to work diligently for the lord in diver places such as: The Jail Ministry (San Francisco & San Bruno) County jails. Delores was skilled in the Word and a Great Soul Winner for the Lord. She also held positions on the Trustee Board and became a Sunday School & YPWW teacher. She was faithful to YWCC, the choir and whatever she found her hands to do she did it faithfully with the spirit of excellence.

In 1987, The Lord called her brother Le'Von Bell to become Pastor of The Greater Church of the Redeemed, C.O.G.I.C. She served that ministry faithfully for over 23 years. She was President of the Women's dept, Missionary Circle, and the Trustee Board. She was the instructor of the Witnessing committee, a Sunday School teacher and she was the founder of the Rhema Bible Institute Class. In the True Fellowship District she served at one time under Missionary Josephine Coleman as her first assistant.

In 1992, She met her wonderful husband Pastor John Bobby Harris Jr. They were joined in holy matrimony on July 18, 1992. In 2011 Her Husband was called to Pastor the New Harvest Ministry in Lathrop, California where they currently resides. Pastor Harris and Missionary Delores worked diligently building their ministry. Many times Pastor Harris and Missionary Delores went door to door witnessing winning souls and beautiful families to their ministry. They befriend many saints that they grew to love while working the Evangelist field in Stockton and Lathrop, Ca.

This Holy woman of God was called to rest on Monday, February 25, 2013. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Walter Bell, Sr. and Delia Ann Bell, two brothers Walter Bell, Jr. and Lynwood Bell Sr., Winifred Bell Jr.

She is survived by her devoted husband Pastor John Bobby Harris Jr. of 20 years, daughters Demetrice Richards-Robinson (Randy), Kimberly Harris-Smith(Sid IV), son James Richards, Jr (Myra). She has 6 grandchildren: Randy Robinson Jr, LaVelle Robinson, Jamill Robinson, Sid Smith V, Victoria Smith, Gracie Smith, and one Great Grandaughter Madilyn Jai'Meah Robinson. Her beloved brothers Pastor Le'Von Bell(Lillie), Maurice Bell, Winifred Bell, two beloved sisters Verline Bell-Partee(Glenn), Janita Bell (Wallace) and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, Uncles and Aunts, In-laws, and other relatives and friends.

God Bless you Elder Collier, Enclosed are (2) programs for you from the Convocation. I trust the Lord that they will be of some help to you and your project. Thank you again, for being available to lend a listening ear. The scripture says this; poor man cried and the Lord heard him and delivered him out of all of his troubles. Psalm 34:6. I am learning to Lean on the Lord. I pray that the Lord will continue to comfort you in the home going of your brother. Be encouraged and know that Elder Harris and I LOVE YOU.

Love,

Sis. Delores Harris
